

HOMEWORK

Lesson 8

Write a function `increase_score(score)` that takes a number as input, adds 10 to it, and returns the result.

Then, outside the function, update a global variable called `total_score` using the returned value.

Demonstrate the difference between modifying the variable inside the function and returning a result to update it outside.